In Govt Progs No 18281-2 dated 4.237.1896 the 29th June, 1903, the rewards to the Vaccinators for the year 1901-03, amounting to Rs. 80/- were sanctd.

In his present letter No 584 of the 27th May, 1904, the Offg Senior Surgeon applies for sanction to the disbursement of Rs 90/- to the deserving Vaccinators as annual reward.

The reward of Rs 10/- recommended on behalf of the Senior Vaccinator of the Vaccine Institute at Bangalore being an unusual charge has been disallowed, and a draft sanction Rs 80/- is subd for appl or other orders.

It is my humble opinion that Senior Vaccinator at Bangalore may also be given the reward of 10 Rs recommended for him by the Senior Surgeon for good work done. If this is approved, the draft will be altered as shown in pencil — 6/6/04

542/7.VI.04

The reward of Rs 10 recommended by the Senior Surgeon for the Senior Vaccinator at Bangalore is sanctioned.

Vaccinator in each District" Vide reference to S.L No 1 - When the order on the subject was passed in 1864 there was no Vaccine Institute at Bangalore and therefore no Vaccinator attached thereto. There was for a long time provision of Rs 10 in our Budgets under the head
"Rewards to Vaccinators & Batta" - But this year Budget as finally passed by the Comptroller, this amount is included in the total provision of Rs 50-10 with a footnote "Rewards to Vaccinators are Rs 10" - Money is thus available - I therefore therefore think that the reward proposed need be disallowed on the ground merely that the provision has not been utilized and that the payment, proposed for the first time this year — Draft as revised by the Dewan is approved — C.
